

ALVECHURCH POINTS OF INTEREST

Gas Street Basin - the hub of Birmingham's canal system and well worth a visit for its range of waterside pubs and to see the pretty canal boats moored there.

National Sea Life Centre - a tropical paradise where you will meet everything from a starfish to a shark, take a tour and learn about the magic and mysteries of the deep.

Black Country Museum - See the historic building brought to life and meet the characters who lived and worked tin bygone times, there will be a warm welcome awaiting you at the Bottle and Glass where you can try a traditional pint of Black Country Real Ale.

Dudley Zoological Gardens - this is home to some of the worlds rarest and exotic animals, Dudley Zoo is helping to save some of the worlds most endangered species.

Dudley Castle - find out what daily life would have been like and discover the facts about the past Earls of Dudley and how it would have looked during the Norman and Tudor times.

Cadburys World – at the world famous chocolate factory take a tour and see the your favourite chocolate being made, visit the museum and learn the history of chocolate from the Aztec's to present day.

Stratford-on-Avon - Set on the banks of the river Avon in the beautiful Warwickshire countryside steeped in history and culture and the birthplace of William Shakespeare.

Warwick Castle – Be a guest at a house party hosted by Daisy, Countess of Warwick meet Daisy and her friends preparing for their party, visit the dungeons or enter the labyrinth of lost soles.

Drayton Manor – Packed with great rides and set in 280 acres of parkland it features some of Europe's wettest and scariest rides including The Shockwave, a stand up roller-coaster, Apocalypse and Pandemonium a ride to turn your world upside down.

Tamworth Castle - a visit to Tamworth Castle any time day or night is packed full of mystery and adventure journey back to medieval times or visit the a chamber room that has been haunted for over 700 years

The Snow Dome - have really great fun on real snow have a skiing or snowboarding lesson and let the children play in the children's play-area or on the mini ice rink