

WORCESTER POINTS OF INTEREST

Worcester - Built on the banks of the River Severn the city is famous worldwide for its beautiful porcelain rich in heritage the Cathedral dominates the skyline. Worcester offers a unique shopping experience mixing the high street stores with an unrivalled choice of one-off independent retailers stroll around on a sunny summer Saturday and watch the many street entertainers.

The Royal Worcester Visitor Centre - take a guided tour around the Centre and learn the techniques of the skilled artists even have a go at painting your own plate. The shops stock a wide range of quality china, porcelain and gift ware with great savings.

Stratford-on-Avon - Set on the banks of the river Avon in the beautiful Warwickshire countryside steeped in history and culture and the birthplace of William Shakespeare.

The Royal Shakespeare Theatre - Owned by the Royal Shakespeare Company attend a performance of one of the Bard's plays or take a guided tour of the theatre.

Evesham – Situated in the centre of the Vale of Evesham the major attraction is the River Avon and is very popular for fishing, walking and boating. Since medieval times the region well known for its fruit and vegetable growing, especially asparagus and now an annual asparagus festival is held in the town.

Stourport-on-Severn - A beautiful Georgian town located on the River Severn and built solely as the consequence of the canals, The Staffordshire and Worcestershire Canal linked the River Severn with the Trent and Mersey and as a result Stourport became one of the busiest inland ports in the Midlands. The town is a popular tourist town with many attractions and events for the whole family.

Stourport Basins - Home to nearly 100 narrow boats and yachts and now with restoration work in progress to return it to its Georgian splendour explore the River Severn on a hire boat .